The Court made the following :

ORDER:

This Court by its order dated 25.06.2004, after hearing the learned Counsel for both parties, passed the following order:

> "Heard. The only grievance of the petitioner is that in spite of the appointment and continuing in service, her case has not been considered.
>
> This Court has already granted interim directions in W.P.No.23703 of 1993 for continuing the petitioners in service and the same is still subsisting. Having regard to the same, it is not necessary to go into the merits of the case. However, it would suffice the interest of justice to direct the respondents to consider the petitioners case for regularizing her service and pass necessary orders in accordance with law."

In pursuance of the above orders, the respondents issued proceedings dated 24.09.2004 stating that they have examined the case of the petitioner and decided to consider her case for regularization of services as per the rules issued by the Government from time to time, as and when her turn comes.

In the above view of the matter, no further orders are required to be passed in this writ petition. However, it is made clear that the respondent shall consider the case of the petitioner as stated by them in their proceedings, dated 24-9-2004.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.
